ABOUT CRCD

Coalition for Responsible Community Development (CRCD) is a community development corporation with a mission to better sustain, coordinate, and improve local planning, development, and community services that address the needs of low-income and working-class residents and small business in South LA.

CRCD serves 100% LMI within South LA. CRCD was founded by neighborhood residents and community leaders to revitalize the area after decades of disinvestment and to improve the quality of life for youth and the community. Since 2005, CRCD has partnered in a combined investment of $168 million in South LA housing and real estate, including 370 units of affordable housing, plus community space for support services, youth programs, a homeless youth drop-in center, a community garden, and commercial space for our social enterprise. CRCD has connected over 1,500 young people to education, jobs, and housing.

- Real Estate and Economic Development. To increase the number of affordable and permanent housing in South Los Angeles and to revitalize the local economy, CRCD develops housing for LMI populations, including transition-age youth ages 16-24, seniors, veterans, and low-income families.
- Support Services. We provide support services to 100% LMI youth and other residents of CRCD housing, assist homeless youth to secure housing with rental subsidies and support services, and run a drop-in center to help homeless transition-age youth meet basic needs.
- Education. CRCD Academy, a high school provides youth ages 16-24 with diploma-track education and postsecondary education support.
- Youth Development. CRCD provides youth with workforce development programs, intensive case management to reduce barriers to employment and reduce recidivism, alternative sentencing programs, and jobs and career placement.

- Worksource Center. Since 2014 CRCD has been the operator of the federally funded Vernon-Central/ Los Angeles Trade-Technical College WorkSource Center where unemployed LMI residents are linked to career-ladder jobs and supportive services.
- CRCD Enterprises. CRCD is the parent organization of a social enterprise providing training and employment for low-income youth and young adults.
